Axa Financial Planning professional development day

Sydney

At professional development days across the nation recently, Axa announced three major improvements to its licensee offer to boost profits, improve advice quality and retain advisers. The enhancements focus on three areas to help principals build better practices – business strategy, business operations and advice delivery. More than 200 advisers attended the New South Wales event at the Shangri-La, Sydney.

- 01 Sharon Taylor and Matthew Craik (both Pathway Financial Management)
- 02 Richard Stewart, Andy Laing and Paul Harrop (all Axa)
- 03 Natalie Tolmie and Kerry Svanberg (both Crest Financial Services)
- 04 Jim Mills (Aviva), Dean Moon (Zurich), Sarah Moore (Aviva) and Protip Dasgupta (Zurich)
- 05 Bill Bracey, Paul Williams (P1) and Paul Robertson (P2) (all Axa)
- 06 Tom Reddcliff and Paul Trosti (both MLC)

- 07 Max Grant and David Rumph (both David Rumph Financial Services)
