

InvestorDaily

Another piece in Jigsaw

Tasmanian firm enlisted

Victoria Young

Tue 18 Dec 2007

Dealer to dealer service provider Jigsaw Support Services (Jigsaw) has signed up a high profile Tasmanian firm as its latest client.

Publically listed Tasmanian Perpetual Trustees is the 28th group to be enlisted by the Axa-owned firm.

"[Jigsaw Support Services] allows a small advice business to leverage Axa's large scale and assets," Charter and Axa Financial Planning national manager Paul Williams said.

"They have peace of mind that their dealer's licence is compliant, so that they can focus on running and growing their business with our support."

Jigsaw provides training, professional development, technical and financial planning support, marketing and compliance regulation.

In total, 180 financial planners use the firm.

Tasmanian Perpetual Trustees was established in 1887, has 10 advisers, manages more than $1.3 billion in funds under management and has $1.2 billion of assets under advice.

It is the only private trustee company authorised to operate in Tasmania and has more than 100 staff in nine branches.

This story appeared on InvestorDaily.com.au ©2006 InvestorDaily